OUTLINES.

The testimony in the trial of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, at Washington, for the murder of Senator Brown, was most damaging to the defendant, showing her to have been an unblushing and desperate woman; several witnesses declared that she did not appear to be insane either before or after the murder; the unhappy Mrs. Brown once choked the woman and begged to be allowed to kill her for robbing her of her husband——Amzi Helms, who was arrested for murdering Miss Ella Pryor, near Charlotte, N. C., confesed yesterday that he shot her under the belief that he was killing the girl's mother——It is believed by Treasury officials at Washington that the success of the Panama bond and Treasury certificate issue is assured; the interest-bearing certificates can be issued in a manner that will save nearly half the interest——The Federal grand jury at Danville, Va., has indicted the officers, directors and stockholders of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, which it is alleged has defrauded the government out of $200,000 revenue——President and Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel and Quentin, will spend Thanksgiving in Virginia——In the Tobacco Trust investigation by the government in the Federal Court at New York yesterday, it was shown that the American Tobacco Company has close relations with the United Cigar Stores Company, and that the trust has a string of cigar stores throughout the country which get larger discounts than other cigar stores, especially when the favored stores sell trust goods exclusively——Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, yesterday said that James J. Hagan had no authority to pledge that organization's support to William Jennings Bryan at the Bryan dinner in Washington Tuesday night——Manufacturers charged by the Government with cornering the trade in licorice used in the manufacture of cigars and tobacco yesterday filed an appeal in the Supreme Court.

"What caused the panic?" inquires a New York paper. E. H. Harriman knows but at the present time he is not saying a word against Roosevelt.

Hoarders are now being abused from Maine to Texas. Verily we have lived to see the day that to belong to the thirty cents class is not so bad.

Panics teach us that we mustn't throw our money away with the idea that business always keeps up. Beds of flowery ease are not to be had all the time.

The "Up Against It" society has been organized in Kansas. President Roosevelt will be elligible for membership when Congress assembles early in December.

We hate to do it, but we wish to remark that, in these times of salary cutting, discharge of employes and curtailment of production, "the full dinner pail" never did depend on the tariff.

A statistician has figured out that "a woman talks eight times as much as a man." If he ever gets into an argument with one he will come to the conclusion that he was too conservative in his calculation.

It is stated that a Connecticut man leaned over to kiss his sweetheart good night, lost his footing and broke his collar bone. This simply shows the danger of girls' standing too far off when it comes time for parting.

The Boston Globe is requested to furnish an inquirer with a song entitled, "I Loved You Once. I Love You Now." We hope the man who wants the song is a Republican and will soon be able to sing it to the G. O. P.

Representative Hepburn of Iowa suggests as a relief of the financial stringency that we "tax the Wall Street gamblers." Not for us. If you tax them they will turn around and distribute their burdens on the "average man."

As the Congressmen at the last session increased their salaries, they should do something at this session to help us raise the money to pay what they think they are worth. In other words, let them earn their increased pay.

A lot of New England preachers have demanded of President Roosevelt to know why he left "In God We Trust" off the new gold coins. Any preacher ought to know that such a motto as that should not be used on money that is liable to get tight.

President Roosevelt a few days ago tossed up a coin to decide which South Dakota Senator should have the first and alternate chances of naming the appointees to Federal offices in the State of South Dakota. These same officeholders will have to come down with the coin for campaign expenses next year.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Many Events Will Mark Observance of The Festival in Wilmington.

SERVICES IN CHURCHES

Business Generally Suspended—Football Game at Hilton—Special Suburban Schedule—Golf Match On Links Near Delgado.

The thanksgiving festival in Wilmington will be generally observed today with a cessation of practically all business, appropriate services in quite all the churches and other features that generally characterize the holiday in the South. It will be the occasion of many family gatherings around the festive Thanksgiving board, while many parties of sportsmen will go afield in pursuit of game and the pleasures of a day far removed from the anxieties of business and the cares of the world.

Many calls were left last night for the early trains this morning, some journeying homeward, others leaving the city for a day of relaxation, and still others for the football gridirons of other States. The Consolidated company has announced a half-hour schedule on the Suburban line for this afternoon, so that all who choose, may spend a day at the Sound or at the Beach. Many will leave the city on private boating parties on the river and by private conveyance.

The following church notices have been given the Star for the services to-day:

Thanksgiving services will be held in St. James this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Following the service the Brotherhood of St. James will distribute the annual Thanksgiving donations of substantials and delicacies to the needy poor of the community.

Thanksgiving services with sermon by Bishop Strange will be held in St. John's this morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the First Presbyterian Church today at 11 a. m. All are cordially invited.

A Thanksgiving service will be conducted in the Lutheran Memorial Building this morning at 11 o'clock by the Pastor of St. Paul's. The offering will be for the Orphans' Home.

Thanksgiving services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Rexford, this morning at 11 o'clock at Market Street Methodist church. All are invited.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carolina Place, this morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

The public is cordially invited to the entertainment to be given in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme has been prepared by the entertainment committee. Following the musical programme, an address appropriate to the day will be given by Rev. R. W. Hogue.

The Cape Fear Golf Club will hold its annual Thanksgiving tournament for men over twenty-seven holes this afternoon on the links near Delgado. An oyster roast and lunch will be served at the Club House and the day is expected to be one of great pleasure for all members.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock devotees of football, who are not privileged to see the larger games elsewhere, will find interest at Hilton Park in a game between the Wilmington High School and the Cape Fear Academy. The teams will line up as follows:

County and State institutions will be closed all day in honor of the holiday, while holiday hours will be observed by all United States institutions. The hours at the postoffice will be as follows: The carriers will make one early morning delivery and collection, the stamp window at the office will be open from 8 to 9.30 a. m. and from 5 to 6 p. m., the general delivery will be open from 9 to 11 a. m. and from 6 to 7 p. m., the registry department will be open an hour in the morning from 9 to 10 o'clock, but the money order department will remain closed all day.

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICE

Annual Lodge of Sorrow Sunday Afternoon in Academy of Music—Address By District Deputy S. W. Hancock of Newbern.

The committee in charge yesterday announced the programme for the annual memorial exercises to be held next Sabbath afternoon in the Academy of Music by the Wilmington Lodge of Elks. These programmes are exceedingly pretty in design and announce that the exercises of the annual "Lodge of Sorrow" will begin at 3.30 o'clock. Exalted Ruler Jos. F. Leitner will preside and the other officers of the lodge will be at their respective posts. The Academy will be attractively decorated and Messrs. D. R. Foster, Will Rehder, D. B. Sinclair, W. O. Morris, C. L. Brown, and B. B. Jackson will serve as ushers for the large number of Elks and their friends who are expected to be in attendance.

The exercises will open with a prelude by the Academy Orchestra, followed by the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," the latter number being by a select quartette composed of Mrs. James S. Longfellow, soprano; Mrs. Jas. D. Smith, alto; Mr. Brooke French, tenor; Mr. H. K. Holden, bass with Mrs. W. C. Munds, accompanist. This quartette collectively and individually will render all the vocal music for the service. With a few opening remarks by Exalted Ruler Leitner, the anthem, "Sweet and Low" (Francis L. York) will be rendered by the quartette, followed by the pretty lodge ceremonial including the opening ode "Great Ruler of the Universe," and prayer by the chaplain, the Rev. Dr. James Carmichael. These ceremonies will be followed by a solo, "A Prayer for Faith" (J. C. Bartlett) by Mrs. James S. Longfellow. The orator of the occasion, District Deputy S. W. Hancock, of Newbern, will be introduced by Past Exalted Ruler W. R. Kingsbury, and after these two addresses an overture will be played by the orchestra, during which the annual collection for the poor will be taken. A hymn "O God of Bethel" and the closing ceremonies will be held with an anthem, "Thy Mercies Lord" and a hymn, "Blest be the Tie That Binds," and the benediction.

The lodge has lost during its history in this city the following members in their order: F. W. Foster, R. L. Gates, R. E. Zachary, E. P. Bailey, John H. Gore, Edgar J. Bear, Felix H. Kluttz, Leonard P. Aaron, John M. Wright, Leo. Loeb and Isaac Bear. In their honor and members all over the world will these exercises be held.

The committee of arrangements is composed of Past Exalted Ruler C. W. Polvogt, I. W. Solomon and Thos. B. Carroll and they have arranged a pretty and most impressive service for this day.

FOR BENEFIT OF "JIMMIE."

Delightful Little Production at Parish House Yesterday Evening.

A delightful little comedietta in four acts, "The Princess May," written by Mrs. A. B. VanBuren, of this city, was presented afternoon and evening yesterday at Saint James parish house by a company of clever young thespians of Wilmington for the benfit of "Jimmie," an unfortunate young fellow in the hospital, who is greatly in need of some assistance in this hour of his misfortune. It is good to know that a neat little sum was realized and that the large number of patrons were delighted with the production. A synopsis of the play was published yesterday. The cast of characters was as follows:

Princess May—Florie Northrop.
Nurse Nap—May Carmichael.
The Queen—Routh Bridgers.
The Witch—Ernestine Bridgers.
The Fairy Queen—Louise Grant.
The "Cat"—Kate Northrop.
The King—Franklin Smith.
The Knight—Frederick Robertson.

Ladies in Waiting—Virginia Taylor, Edith Clark, Katherine Manning, Elizabeth Pemberton, Meta Rountree, Louise Wise.

Goblins—Rob Williams, Latham Harris, Walker Taylor, Charlie Grainger, Heiskell Gouverneur, John Corbett.

Frederick Robertson was business manager of the enterprise and managed everything to perfection.

COL. PETER MALLETT

Well Known and Distinguished North Carolinian Passed Away Yesterday.

AT HOME OF HIS DAUGHTER

Had Reached Advanced Age of 83 Years—Funeral Will Be Conducted This Afternoon—Long and Useful Career.

Many friends in this city and throughout the State will learn with sorrow of the death of Colonel Peter Mallett, which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gabriel Holmes, No. 213 North Third street, where he had spent the past few months. Col. Mallett had reached the advanced age of 83 years and his death was due more to the infirmities of one of his age than to any specific disease. His condition had ben critical for several weeks and while his death was not unexpected, it came as a shock to the faimly and friends. The funeral will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock this afternon from St. James P. E. Church and the remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

"Col. Peter Mallett died in this city yesterday morning in the 84th year of his age. He was born in Fayetteville, N. C., on May 25th, 1824. He came from an old Huguenot family, the members of which were distinguished not only in France but in America, the country to which the troubled times in France and religious persecution compeled them to remove.

"His grandfather, Peter Mallett, settled in this city about 1769, and early in the Revolution was appointed to the Commissary Department of the Continental Army. Charles Peter Mallett, of Fayetteville, who married Sophia Beattie, was the father of Col. Peter Mallett.

"Col. Mallett was a scholar in early life of the high school at Fayetteville, and afterwards completed his education under the Rev. C. W. Everest, a distinguished educator from Connecticut, who was at the time a private tutor in his father's family. Being energetic and full of ambition his great desire was to enter into business in New York, where he thought he would find much greater opportunities than in a Southern city. His father at the time was largely engaged in the manufacture of cotton goods and his agents in New York had an office at 9 Old Slip. Col. Mallett went to them in the year 1845 with letters from his father, and it is rather singular that except the interval during the war between the States, and for a short while therafter, he was in business in and near that locality until his failing health compelled him to retire.

"After spending some two years in learning the details of business he started out for himself with a partner and commenced a brokerage business under the firm name of Krider & Mallett. In 1848 he married his first wife, Annabella Gibbs, who was a daughter of Mr. Robert Gibbs, a rice planter on the Cape Fear river. Shortly afterwards Col. Mallett bought out his partner and opened a new brokerage house with Mr. Paulmier, under the firm name of Mallett & Paulmier. The co-partnership conducted a successful business until the disastrious panic of 1857, when Col. Mallett retired. He then formed a new copartnership with Mr. D. Colden Murray. This firm did a large shipping business and controlled most of the shipping sailing from New York to Charleston, Wilmington and Savannah. At the time they had a fleet of twelve schooners, four brigs and two barques. The firm was exceedingly successful and prosperous and seemed well on the way to make a fortune for each of the partners when the War between the States broke out and brought with it ruined fortune to Col. Mallett.

"At this time he was a member of the celebrated Seventh Regiment of New York State Militia. He did not hesitate a moment, however, to decide between his fortune and his duty as he conceived it.. He was a North Carolinian, and putting fortune, ease and comfort to the side, and cheerfully and gladly relinquishing all, he choose to cast in his lot with his State. Leaving New York he came to North Carolina and was made Captain of a company of North Carolina State troops which he raised. He had six brothers, every one of whom served in the Confederate Army, and two of them were killed on the field of battle. Col. Mallett was promoted to Major in 1862, and Colonel in 1863, when he was made commandant of the Camp of Conscription at Raleigh, where the new conscripts and recruits were gathered to drill. He had been in active service on the Potomac and when ordered to take charge of the Camp of Conscription at Raleigh, he at first refused, as his desire was to be at the front in active service; but he felt it was his duty to obey orders,and giving up his cherished desires he obeyed the call of duty and went to Raleigh.

"With all the troops under his com-

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

Miss Cort Alberta Meredith the Bride of Mr. Ransley Weathersbee Yesterday Evening—Bridal Tour to the North.

Beautifully decorated with a profusion of plants and flowers from the extensive greenhouses of Rehder, the florist, and thronged with admiring friends and relatives of the young people to the solemn vows at the altar, the First Baptist church never presented a lovelier scene than on yesterday evening at six o'clock when Mr. Ransey Weathersbee led to the altar Miss Cora Alberta Meredith, a most attractive young woman of this city, and they were made man and wife in an impressive service by the pastor, the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D.

The prevailing colors for the wedding were pink and white and this was carried out quite effectively in all parts of the large auditorium. The wedding marches were delightfully played by Mrs. Herbert E. O'Keefe and promptly at the appointed hour a wedding chorus from Lohengrin announced the approach of the bridal party. Little Misses Emily Lou Powell and Rachel Grady were charming as ribbon children preceding other members of the party. The bride, who entered the church upon the arm of her father, Mr. William J. Meredith, was attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Rosa Meredith, while the only bridesmaid was Miss Mary E. Weathersbee, of Augusta, Ga., a sister of the groom. Mr. Benjamin H. Weathersbee, of Charleston, S. C., a brother, was the groom's best man, while the ushers for the occasion were Messrs. Herman S. Meredith, a brother of the bride; J. H. Shelley and W. P. Fletcher, of Wilmington, and Mr. W. L. Anderson, of Rocky Mount. The groom and his best man entered from the Sunday School room, the former being met at the altar by the bride, there the pretty service having been spoken that joined their hands and hearts as one for life.

A beautiful feature of the service was the singing of "Because I Love You," by Mrs. Jos. J. Loughlin. The effect was charming and added no little to the pretty ceremony.

The flower children were prettily gowned in white silk trimmed with lace and carried bouquets of chrysanthemums. The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of blue cloth with hat and gloves to match and carried a lovely shower bouquet of bride's roses and Southern smilax. The maid of honor was pretty in a costume of tan chiffon cloth with a touch of pink, hat and gloves to match and carried pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid wore a stylish gown of grey voile with picture hat and she also carried pink chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony at the church the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, on North Second street, where a brief reception was held and they later accompanied the bride and groom to the Atlantic Coast Line station whence they took their departure for an extended bridal tour North amid a shower of rice and best wishes. Returning to the city they will be at home in this city at No. 312 North Fourth street.

The bride is much loved and admired in a wide circle of friends in this city. The groom is connected with the auditing department of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city and has made many friends since his recent removal here from Augusta, Ga., his former home. That both are very popular was evidenced by the large number of friends who gathered to witness the pretty ceremony and the many very handsome and useful wedding presents that were received.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Memory of Whiteville, Miss Irene Memory, of Whiteville, Mr. W. L. Anderson, of Rocky Mount, Miss Mary Weathersbee, of Augusta, Ga., and Mr. B. H. Weathersbee, of Charleston, S. C.

MADE STATION MASTER.

Capt. John M. Walker Begins New Duties on December 1st.

It will be a pleasure to many friends and the traveling public in general to know that Capt. John M. Walker of this city, has been made station master of the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line Union Depot in this city, a position which comes to him in the line of promotion and one which he will fill with eminent satisfaction Capt. Walker has been away the past Summer recuperating his health and has sufficiently recovered to be able to take up his new duties on next Monday, December 1st. He is a railroad man of splendid parts, a courteous gentleman and his appointment to the position is a source of congratulation for the interests he will serve.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW

On account of theThanksgiving holiday there will be no issue of The Morning Star to-morrow morning, but subscribers may expect their papers as usual on the following morning, the brief suspension being in order that the employees of the office, in common with the rest of the world, may take advantage of the Thanksgiving season.

SALOON REGULATION

Conference of Aldermen Tuesday Night Was at Behest of Business Men.

MEETING LAST SATURDAY

High License, Stricter Regulation and Elimination of Saloons from Residential Portions Was Recommended—Another Meeting?

It was no longer a secret on the streets yesterday that the special conference of the Board of Aldermen at the City Hall Tuesday night was the outgrowth of a meeting of some twenty-five prominent business men at the Chamber of Commerce last Saturday afternoon, at which was considered at some length ways and means of avoiding the present agitation and strife necessarily growing out of the heated prohibition campaign that has been launched in Wilmington. The Aldermen sought to reach some agreement upon the question of high license, segregation and stricter regulation of the traffic, which is taken to indicate that this was the concensus of opinion as to the best solution of the problem among the business men at whose behest the conference of Aldermen was held.

A reporter yesterday sought an expression from one of the leading men at the conference of business men and was given the following interview in regard to the feeling that seemed to possess the meeting:

"Prohibition at best is a relative term," said he, "and experience proves that unless a prohibition law is supported by a very strong and general public sentiment the law is largely inoperative. Prohibition is never absolute, therefore, the mere form of law is not of itself virtuous, and any expedient, regardless of name, that tends to a higher moral level and to the abatement of the liquor evil, is equally righteous. To wish prohibition is not to accomplish it, and it is a narrow view that characterizes efforts directed to the regulation of the traffic as being opposed to prohibition in principle.

"Prohibition does not claim to redeem men," he continued, " and its chief object is to remove temptation from those who have not acquired the liquor habit, and the best means to accomplish this result is a matter of individual opinion. If experience proves, as it does, that a prohibition law is not enforceable in the absence of a virile public sentiment, it follows that the blind tiger evil abounds under such conditions, so that the 'recruits' that the prohibition theorist hopes to save are allured into the habit in the most attractive form to the young, viz., clandestinely; and in adition to the habit acquired under such conditions is the further evil of the young becoming habituated to the violation of law, thus producing bad citizens in two respects.

"High license with bars restricted to a local area, subject to adequate protection, without screens, regulation of hours and exacting conditions in respect to forfeiture of license would operate as a greater measure of safety to 'recruits' than a prohibition law under present conditions," he said. "The 'recruit' who would be enticed into the blind tiger through the love of adventure would not be so wanting in self-respect as to go into an open saloon and take his first drink, because public sentiment would be strong enough to restrain him. The licensed saloon under these conditions would at once prohibit the sale of liquor in the parts of the city which are the least protected and to an element of people that exert the least self-control, while reducing the army of 'recruits" to a minimum if not to a negation. The best detective under high license is the licensed seller, and what the officer of the law cannot discover, the man who is paying high for the privilege will ferret out, so that the blind tiger would exist only in morbid imaginations.

"It would seem, therefore," he concluded, "that under present conditions high license, as a moral force, would be preferable to an unenforceable prohibition law."

It was stated on the streets yesterday that it was entirely within the range of possibility that another effort would be made to have the Aldermen consider some means by which an agrgeement could be brought about. It is safe to say that the conference Tuesday night was an utter failure.

Ties for Panama.

The Norwegian steamer Cecilia yesterday completed receiving cargo and cleared for Cristobal Colon, Panama, with cargo of 5,925 switch and 7,737 cross ties, 699,000 feet, valued at $13,318 and consigned by Mr. L. J. Merriman. This is the first cargo ever shipped from Wilmington to Panama and is only the first of several vessels that will be loaded here for Panama by Mr. Herriman who has large contracts for ties and timbers for the extensive government and railroad construction work on the Isthmus.

TAINTED MONEY YEARS AGO.

Chancellor Day, of Syracuse University, and other college executives who do not think it wrong to look upon money (for educational purposes) when it is "tainted," would enjoy an incident which is related in Dr. Lyon G. Tyler's valuable new volume "Williamsburg, the Old Colonial Capital" This incident illustrates the "get there" methods employed by the Rev. Dr. James Blair, first President and founder of Williams and Mary College

At a meeting of the Virginia clergy at Jamestown in 1689 Dr. Blair offered resolutions petitioning the General Assembly to take steps for the establishment of a college for that colony. These resolutions were adopted, the Governor endorsed them and the General Assembly followed suit. It then appointed Dr. Blair to visit England for a charter and endowment. These he received from the Crown, but also raised additional funds in other ways, one of which is described by the present President of William and Mary in the following delightful paragraph:

"Pirates were very numerous in those days, and the government had often to make compromises in dealing with them, which would not find much favor in these days. Some years before Dr. Blair's visit to London, the English authorities had caused it to be made known that any pirate coming into port by a certain time should be forgiven his past transgressions and permitted to retain a part of his ill-gotten treasure. Many availed themselves of this concession to make their peace with the government; but there were three pirates—Edward Davies, John Hanson, and Lionel Delawafer—who came in after the date set by the law, and, as a consequence, were arrested and put in jail. They sent a humble petition to the privy council for pardon, alleging that they did not know of the proclamation till it was too late to come in by the date appointed. Dr. Blair saw his chance, hunted the pirates up, and offered to use his influence in their behalf, if they would consent to give the sum or value of $300 of the goods under seizure to the use of his proposed colege. This the pirates readily agreed to do, and, through the intervention of Dr. Tillotson and Dr. Compton, the pirates were pardoned. and an order was entered by the privy council on March 10, 1692, for restoring to them their treasure, minus the amount promised to the college in Virginia."

It would have been bad for that ingenious scheme of frying fat from the pirates if a man like Dr. Washington Gladden or Ida M. Tarbell had been around.

THE MAGAZINES.

The Argosy for December has been received. It is a quarter of a century old and has been one of the most successful publications of the world. The history of the magazine appears in this number and it is a story that will deeply interest everybody. The Argosy's strictly literary character has made for it a distinct place in the favor of a large class of readers and they like it better with each successive number. The subscription price is $1.00 per annum; 10 cents per copy.. Address: The Frank A. Munsey Company, 175 Fifth Avenue, New York.

The American Magazine for December is bound to have a popular run. It carries all its valuable features, but Ida M. Tarbell writes an article that will attract wide attention. She writes of "Roosevelt vs. Rockefeller," and accompanying are portraits of John D. Rockefeller. There also appears in the December American an article entitled, "When Sherman Marched Down to the Sea," by Mrs. McKee Rankin, and another, "The Tragedy of the Negro in the North," and editorial announcement of a new series of articles by Ray Stannard Baker. The subscription price of the American Magazine is $1.00 a year and it is on sale at 10 cents per copy. Address the Phillips Publishing Co., 34 Fifth Avenue, New York.

That delightful publication, "The Woman's Home Companion" is out with its Christmas number: It is a beautiful publication and its literary home department, fiction, music, fashion, household and other features makes it an intensely popular visitor in American families. Of course, the number is especially interesting in its holiday feature and is all the more to be desired at this season. The home Companion is sent to subscribers at $1.00 and it sells at 10 cents per copy. Address, The Crowell Publishing Co., Madison Square, New York.

MORE GOING THAN COMING.

It is reported on reliable authority that freight accomodations on outgoing steamers from many of the larger ports of the country are restricted and embarrassed by the crowds of steerage passengers that have to be provided for.

This is certainly a novel, as well as interesting phase of the immigration question. A single steamer last week carried 2,500 and the total migration was estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000 for the week. If this movement were not a temporary one these figures would make the emigration tide exceed that of immigration. This unusual outgoing movement is probably due to the light demand for labor at the present time. Many of these people will return in the spring when the times are better for the employment of labor, but the incident shows that the tide of immigration is not all in one direction. Both labor and capital are subject to the law of supply and demand and the time has come when it moves with considerable freedom between the United States and Europe.

This element of living labor is moving as it has never been able to do before, in obedience to an economic law, although it is somewhat affected by human motives and desires. The motive may be a desire to revisit the old homes and familiar places or to escape the discomfort or anxiety of being out of employment in a country where the cost of living is high. But the real reason is that the demand for his labor has fallen. He is going but he or others will return when that demand rises again. While these emigrants carry a good deal of money with them, they have earned it here and many of them will spend it abroad, even as do the American tourists. On the other hand, their going reduces the number of unemployed and makes it easier for those who remain to make a comfortable living in times of comparative dullness.

NEW POWER FOR SHIPS.

Within the next few years it is not unreasonable to expect to see a great revolution in the method of furnishing power to the big vessels. The gas engine was first patented in 1860 and since that time it has advanced to a stage hardly hoped for even by its inventors. The uses of the gas engine appear to be almost illimitable and a recent issue of Cassier's Magazine devoted the entire contents of that number to this subject.

"Perhaps no new service by the gas engine is today more eagerly looked for by its champions than the propulsion of large ships. The task of adopting it to such work has been beset with embarrassment. Some of these, like the diffuculty of self-starting and reversing, relate to the engine itself. Others call for the development of supplementary apparatus—the modification of the gas plant, for instance, and provisions for ventilation sufficient to prevent the explosion of leaking gas. One of the writers for 'Cassier's Magazine," Mr. A. Vennell Coster, is satisfied that most of the hindrances have now been removed and that the solution of remaining problems canot long be deferred. Testimony of a slightly more conservative but not discouraging nature was furnished a few weeks ago by Mr. John Ward, president of the British Institution of Ship Builders and Engineers who holds that there is justification for the efforts being made to evolve a satisfactory design for a marine gas engine."

An English Expert connected with the great firm of Vickers' Sons & Maxim, has no hesitation in expressing the belief that before long the world will see a battleship driven by gas power, its machinery able to develop 16,000 horsepower. As there are many gas engines now in service on land which have a capacity of 4,000 or 4,500 horsepower the prediction is a less unreasonable one than it at first seemed to be.

A SLUMP IN RADIUM.

A great slump has been reported in the price of radium. This was because in Vienna nearly three grams of that undefined element have been extracted from ten million grams of pitchblende at one third the cost of previous production, which was about $3,000,000 an ounce. At this new price of $1,000,000 an ounce, John D., might corner the world's product and carry it about with him; but he won't do it till he really knows what it is good for, to say nothing of what it is.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—There will be a further drop in the prices of provisions and meats," says an Armour manager. "Further." Has anyone noticed the previous drop? —New York World.

—A company has been formed in Paris to operate sight-seeing airships. With "rubberneck balloons" it will not be long until we shall have to tunnel, if we seek any privacy.—New York Sun.

—The panic has some strange odds against it and against which the panic cannot hold. The United States Treasury has more than $24,000,000 surplus in it, and the cotton farmers of the South are holding back about 5,000,000 bales of cotton, worth $300,000,000 to $400,000,000.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Wilmington Star is pleased to say: "What the famous newspaper writer, Mr. W. E. Curtis, writes about Charlotte corresponds with the impression every one gets after taking a look at the Queen City and comes into contact with the forces and resources that are making it one of the South's greatest cities." For this graceful recognition, The Chronicle doffs its hat to the Star, as it has had occasion to do aforetime.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—When an employer down South tries to make a fellow work out money advanced to him for passage to the place of employment or for board or other things along comes a federal official to prosecute him for "peonage." North of the Ohio river nothing is ever done. There is, as a matter of fact, no "peonage" anywhere under the Stars and Stripes, but Mr. Roosevelt's crowd must needs do something to appear to earn their pay.—Nashville American.

Mr. Charles F. Wilson of Colorado in urging the Democratic National Committee in session at French Lick Springs to hold the convention at Denver, made the pledge: "We will hand you $100,000 in gold, hand it to you in coin." How this amount of the yellow metal will look to the committee next July depends upon the course of fiscal events, but if the national convention were to be held next month Mr. Wilson would probably have no difficulty in winning the prize for Denver.—New York Sun.

—When a gentleman of pure Hawaiian blood took his seat in the House of Representatives several years ago, the incident attracted considerable attention because, while Hawaii had, it is true, been annexed to the United States, it was the first time that a scion of a foreign royal family had become a member of the national legislature of the republic. A little later, Tulio Larrinaga, resident commissioner of Porto Rico, qualified as a limited member of the House, and the cosmopolitan character of the American House became more evident Now, two more "foreigners," despite the fact that they have sworn allegiance to the United States, are preparing to sail for this country and will soon be claiming honorary seats in the lower chamber of Congress. Benito Lagarda and Pablo Ocampa have just been elected commissioners to represent the Philippines in Washington and will, presumably, be accorded the right to sit with the House of Representatives, although they will not be entitled to vote.—Washington Post.

TWINKLINGS.

—Not That Kind—"You used to think me a model man." "Yes, but found out that you were not a working model."—Illustrated Bits.

—Bowers—In what way did Smith strike a heavy blow? Powers—He struck Kansas during a cyclone.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

—A Certainty— "Every woman thinks she would make an actress." "Not every one." "Yes." "There is my wife." "Doesn't she think it?" "No! she knows it."—Nashville American.

—"Look here," grumbled the Cannibal Chief, "I told you to cook this chauffeur rare, and he's burned to a crisp!" "'Taint my fault," protested the cook. "He was scorching when I caught him."—Cleveland Leader.

—"Tell me my poor man," said the good hearted old lady, "to what do you attribute your fondness for drink? It is hereditary-" "No, ma'am," replied the poor man, "It's thirst."—Philadelphia Press.

—More of the Same.—Little Edna—What is "leisure," mamma? Mamma —It's the spare time a woman has in which she can do some other kind of work, my dear.—Chicago Daily News.

—"I went to the opera last night," "What did you hear?" "That Mrs. Browning is going to get a divorce, Mrs. Biggs has the dearest dog and a new baby, and the Huttons are going to live in India."—Harper's Weekly.

—"I thought you told me you were playing the heavy part in a spectacular drama?" "So I am." "Why, you don't even appear on the stage." "Oh yes, I do! I'm the hind legs of the elephant."—Illustrated Bits.

—"I suspect," said the observant citizen, "that people do not pay as much attention to campaign speeches as they used to." "They don't," answered Senator Sorghum. "The business instinct is permeating the masses, and they regard a campaign speech merely as a promissory note without any mortgage behind it."—Washington Star.

Why Is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The first and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years. 50c.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at R. R. Belamy's drug store.

Gowan's Philosophy

Once inawhile I meet a man who says "You are making lots of money out of your Cure—I see its sales are increasing everywhere." That makes me tired. Naturally one would think a man would take you by the hand and say "You are doing lots of good—you are saving so many lives—Gowan's Pneumonia Cure is a marvel." That would suit me better. But some men only see the money and for that reason delay buying a bottle until too late. But they are coming across in processions. All druggists sell it now and 50 cents or a dollar places it within the reach of all—and they know it cures.

Thanksgiving

Ready for Thanksgiving

Turkey dressing isn't half as important as dressing for the turkey and for the Festive Occasion, when that noble bird is the central attraction. Our business is dressing men and boys—from the Sack Suit for business to clothes for formal evening dress.

We have everything in Apparel that a man could ask for—And it's ready for you at a minute's notice; ready to put on and wear without any more delay than to find your fit and please your fancy.

Perhaps you're somewhat shy on Toggery—A new hat, maybe; possibly needing a handsome tie, new gloves, a dress shirt or the collar and cuff stock needs replenishing, etc., etc.—In fact, if you are wanting anything in clothes or toggery we're at your service with the "best" at a modest price.

PAPA'S STORY.

His Attempt to Tell It While Trying to Put Robert Asleep.

"Papa!"

"Well?"

"Tell me a story."

"I'll tell you just one if you will promise to go to sleep."

"My pajamas don't feel good."

"Don't think about them. I'll tell you a story, but one will be all."

Mr. Todd sat beside the bed and began:

"Once there was a little boy"—

"What's his name?"

"I forget."

"Didn't he have any name?"

"Yes, to be sure he had! Don't interrupt me, Robert."

"Then what was it?"

"Why, his name was—his name was Julius."

"Julia's a girl's name."

"This boy's name was Julius, not Julia. He was named for Julius Caesar."

"I know something about Julius Caesar," Robert exclaimed, sitting up suddenly and quoting:

"Julius Caesar
Was a wise old geezer,
But he froze off his feet
In a ice cream freezer."

"Where did you ever hear such a thing as that?"

"Alfred Potts told it to me."

"Well, don't you ever let me hear you use that word 'geezer' again. Now go to sleep."

"But you didn't tell me the story."

"All right. This isn't about Julius Caesar at all. Julius Caesar was a king, and he died a long time ago."

"When he froze his feet off, papa?"

"He didn't freeze his feet. That is a piece of silliness Alfred Potts told you."

"What is a piece of silliness, papa?"

"Don't ask me such foolish questions. Settle down and go to sleep or I'll go back downstairs and leave you alone."

"Papa, my pajamas don't feel good."

"I told you not to think about them. Now, listen and I'll tell you about this little boy. He went out one day and saw"—

"Was his name Julius?"

"Yes, yes!" Mr. Todd answered. "His name was Julius, and he"—

"Did he die a long time ago?"

"No. Julius Caesar died a long time ago. This boy didn't."

"Where does he live now?"

"I don't know. Be still."

"How'd you know what's his name, then?"

"Well, he lives—he lives in a town somewhere. And one day he went out and saw a tree that was simply full of birds. The birds"—

"What did the birds do?"

"The birds sang, of course."

"What did they sing?"

"They sang songs. Now, if you want me to tell you this story you will have to be quiet. So this boy looked up at the birds and"—

"My pajamas don't feel good."

"They never will feel good if you don't stop thinking about them. So this boy looked up at the birds, and—he was a bad boy—and he thought it would be smart to throw a stone at them."

"Did he?"

"Yes, he threw a stone at the poor little birds."

"And what did the stone do?"

"It made the birds fly. And then"—

"Papa."

"Well?"

"What did the fly do?"

"What fly?"

"The fly it made the birds into."

"Robert Gallahue Todd, I am going downstairs, and if you are not asleep in two minutes I shall punish you!"

Some Famous "Dunces."

Nathaniel Hawthorne was the dunce of his class. Walter Scott was told by his professor that he was a dunce. Both Napoleon and Wellington were dull boys at school, and when Clive won Plassy his father said he did not think the booby had so much sense. Chalmers, the leader of the disruption, was expelled from his school as an incorrigible dunce. Chatterton was sent home as a fool, and Leigh Hunt was considered beyond all hope. Isaac Newton, the great oriental scholar; Sir William Jones and Robert Morrison, who compiled the immortal Chinese Bible and dictionary, were all regarded as extremely dull boys. — Minneapolis Journal.

Two Duels.

Sainte-Beuve got an excellent advertisement out of a duel fought on a wet day by insisting upon holding his umbrella up with one hand while he fired his pistol with the other. He was willing, he courageously said, to take the risk of being shot, but he must be excused from taking the greater risk of catching cold.

The duel which Benjamin Constant, who suffered from gout, fought sitting in a Bath chair may have been of somewhat similar character. Honor in that case was declared to be satisfied when the Bath chair was hit.—Strand Magazine.

Dangerous.

Father—What are you doing, Emma? Daughter—Oh, Arthur is coming tonight, and I'm cooking something for him. Father—Emma, Emma, you'd better be careful. You'll keep on cooking for him till he breaks the engagement.—Heitere Welt.

It takes a lot of courage on the part of a young man to tell a girl how pretty some other girl is.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

MEMORIAL TO MR. JACOBI.

Chamber of Commerce Honors Memory of Deceased Member.

At a special meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the following very beautiful tribute to the memory of the late Nathaniel Jacobi was presented by a committee composed of Mr. H. C. McQueen, chairman; Col. Walker Taylor and Mr. Sam Bear, and was unanimously adopted upon motion of Mr. L. B. Rogers:

"The Chamber of Commerce, the City of Wilmington, N. C., desires to place on record this tribute to the memory of the late Nathaniel Jacobi, a member of this body.

"Comfng to Wilmington in the prime of early manhood, and having already achieved honor in the service of the country to which he owed allegiance for courage and fidelity to duty, he entered commercial life nearly a half century ago. and from that time has been an honored and honorable citizen of this community.

"Diligent in business, just in his dealings, far-seeing and care-taking, his labors prospered, and he built up a large and successful business. Always affable, he made many friends, firm in his convictions, his judgment was sought and respected, tenderhearted and generous, his charities were kind and liberal.

"In a time of financial stress, as is now existing, the loss of such a man is doubly felt, and the virtues of an intellect, optimistic yet conservative, strongly remembered.

"He lived to an honored old age, and dying has bequeathed to his family and to the community a valuable heritage, for they who desire to succeed in life—to command success in its broadest light—may well feel encouraged by the example of one, whom the wise man describes 'Seest thou a man diligent in business? he shall stand before kings.' 'His leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

Married Last Evening.

Yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock the pastor, Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., at the church study of St. Andrew's performed a quiet but very pretty wedding ceremony that joined in marriage Miss Lela Gray Smith, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith, and Mr. J. C. Saunders, a popular young Wilmingtonian, a son of Mr. B. F. Saunders. They will make their home in this city where they have a great many friends.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Miss Elliott Emerson, youngest daughter of Mr. T. M. Emerson, president of the Atlantic Coast Line, to Mr. Albert Sydney Williams, is announced. They are among the most popular young society people of the city and there will be much interest among their friends upon this announcement.

Special Schedule Today.

on Suburban line. Cars to beach every half hour in the afternoon. **

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mr. C. M. Wilson, of Rocky Point, came down to the city last evening on a business trip.

—Thanksgiving services wil be held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carolina Place, this morning at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

—The steamer City of Fayetteville was in port yesterday, bringing among cargos 169 bales of cotton. She cleared in the afternoon yesterday for the return trip.

—The schooner aGrdiner B. Reynolds cleared yesterday with a cargo of 363,000 feet of lumber consigned by the Cape Fear Lumber Co., to parties in Portland, Me.

Eli Davis, charged with shooting up the kitchen of his paramour in Love's alley, was also held for the grand jury. Ella Haywood, disorderly conduct, was sent to the farm for thirty days.

HEMENWAY DID WELL.

Voluntary Offering of $52.26 by Public School Pupils to Library.

If the Wilmington public generally was as generous to the Wilmington Public Library as the pupils of the Hemenway public school, the library would in a very few months attain first place among the institutions of its kind in the State. Recently there was inaugurated at the Hemenway school a contest among the pupils of the eight grades to determine which could in largest measure show its appreciation of the library, this contest being the very clever and generous conception of Miss Jones, one of the teachers in the school. Yesterday morning just before the exercises were suspended for the Thanksgiving holidays, there was a count of the donations of the several grades and the surprisingly large sum of $52.26 was realized. This will be turned over at once to the library fund and will go a long ways toward furnishing much needed equipment and books.

Few people know that there are now 1,406 regular patrons of the library and that during the year about to close 17,385 standard books were circulated. It is a great institution and the example of the Hemenway pupils is worthy of the highest emulation.

A COMRADE TRUE.

"Confederate" Relates an Incident of Fall of Fort Fisher.

(Communicated.)

"Parson" J. A. Smith, I note by the newspapers is delivering a lecture "The Fall of Fort Fisher." The "parson" was a very gallant member of Lt. John T. Rankin's company, Major Alexander MacRae's First Battalion, Heavy Artillery, and on the retreat after the evacuation of Fort Anderson during one of the skirmishes at close quarters, was hit by a bullet in the mouth. Spitting out the loose teeth, he shook his fist at the Federal soldier shouting at him: "D- - n you, I'll pay you for this!" (He doesn't curse now)

If that "yank" is still alive it would be very pleasant to have him visit Wilmington and meet the parson, and see the former foes shake.

CONFEDERATE.

The following letter was received yesterday in answer to certain pertinent questions:

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 25th. 1907.
W. M. Cumming, Esq.,
Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir:—I take great pleasure in replying to your esteemed favor of 22nd inst, as follows, viz.

"1st. The rate of taxation in Charlotte is $1.00 per $100.00.

"2nd. Valuation of real estate for taxation as compared with its real value is approximately from one-half to two-thirds.

"'Is prohibition a success in Charlotte?'

"Yes, decidedly so, both from a financial and moral standpoint.

"Trusting the above information will prove satisfactory, and assuring you of my willingness to furnish you whatever information you may desire at any time, I am,

"Respectfully,
A. H.WEARN,
"Clerk and Treasurer."

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of the late Colonel Peter Mallett will take place from St. James' Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend. Interment in Oakdale cemetery.

mand he was ordered to the front to join the army which was hurriedly being formed of every material that could be called into the field, to meet General Foster, who with a Federal Army some twenty thousand strong was marching into the interior of the State from Newbern. He with his command was attached to the Command under General Evans from South Carolina, and at the battle of Kinston was severely wounded in the left leg, taken prisoner and paroled. His wound was a severe one and from the effects of it he was confined for neraly nine months.

"Upon his recovery he returned to the camp at Raleigh, where he remained until the surrender of General Lee, he was then ordered by General Holmes in command of the Department of North Carolina to attach himself to President Davis and follow him with the Cavalry. His attendance upon President Davis, however, ended with the surrender of General Johnston.

Col. Mallett then returned to Fayetteville, N. C., where he joined his family. Shortly afterwards he moved to Wilmington where he engaged in business for a short while. In 1868 he went to New York to represent the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company in that city, as he afterwards said: 'Having done all the harm I could down South I returned to New York with all my baggage, a wife and six children for the purpose of trying to get back some of the fortune which I left behind me there on breaking out of the war.

"In 1872 he went into the warehouse business for the storage of cotton and was the first warehouse man to engage largely in the storage of cotton in Brooklyn. In this business he remained until his failing health compelled him to give it up. Later in life, after the death of his first wife, he was again married to Mrs. Frank Dean, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who still survives him.

Of his large family he has left behind him besides his wife, only four children, Mrs. Gabriel Holmes of Wilmington, Dr. George H. Mallett, of New York City, and Dr. Pierrie Mallett, of Kansas City, and Mr. Charles E. Mallett of Etowah, N. C.

"Col. Mallett was one of the old school gentlemen of the South, a class of men which, alas, are so rapidly disappearing. He was a man of most genial and lovable disposition, a true and steadfast friend and a man with the highest sense of honor and of the duty of a true son of his State and his Southern country.

In the majesty of years he has completed his earthly labors and well earned eternal rest."

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Miss Rowena Swann the Bride of Mr. Robert Henry Orrell.

Last night at nine o'clock at the parsonage of Fifth Street M. E. Church the pastor, Rev. Kenneth D. Holmes, happily united in marriage Miss Rowena Swann and Mr. Robert Henry Orrell, a popular young Wilmingtonian who has charge of the commercial wire of the Western Union Telegraph Company in the Chamber of Commerce building. On account of a recent death in the family, the wedding was very quiet but it was very pretty, nevertheless. The bride was attended as maid of honor by Miss Mamie Blair, while the groom's best man was his friend, Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq.

Following the ceremony at the parsonage a reception was given at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Ida Orrell, No. 609 South Second street, where many friends extended to the young people their happiest felicitations. Dainty refreshments were served and an evening of pleasure was spent by all the guests assembled. Mr. and Mrs. Orrell will make their home in Wilmington, where both are very popular.

Mr. Hugh H. Jollye Dead.

Friends in Wilmington have just learned with great sorrow of the death of Mr. Hugh H. Jollye, who after a lingering illness of several months, passed away Sunday at his home in Vineland, N. C. He was a leading citizen of Columbus county, a prominent Mason and a devoted churchman. A wife and four children survive him, the children being Mr. F. Jollye, with I. M. Bear & Co, of this city; Mrs. Beverly Hawkins, of Charlotte; Mrs. Harvie W. Little and Mrs. Herbert A. Lewis, of Marion, S. C. Mr. Jollye was seventy years of age when he passed away.

Remove Fire Alarm Battery.

The battery of the fire alarm system will be moved from the old chemical station to the new on Friday morning and during the removal the circuit will be out of commission for several hours. Chairman French, of the committee, asks all who may have occasion to summon the department Friday to do so by telephone. The system will be placed in operation just as soon as possible.

Thanksgiving at the Theatre.

This afternon at special Thanksgiving matinee at the Academy of Music the Four Pickerts will offer "Little Crystal" as a bill that will be found especially pleasing to ladies and children. Tonight the bill will be "Pink Dominoes." Seats are now selling at popular prices.

Situation at Treasury Department is Most Pleasing—Panama Bonds and Treasury Certificates are in Demand.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—The situation at the Treasury today was such that there is no longer any doubt felt among Treasury officials of the success of both the loans, in the Panama bonds and the one-year treasury certificates. If considerably less than $100,000,000 is allotted in the certificates it will not be because the subscriptions are not more than sufficient to cover the amount.

Calculations are already being made as to probable conditions in the money market next spring and the ability to call in a part of the certificates. If the amount issued should be only $50,000,000, and half of these should be paid off in six months, the interest charges would fall materially below the $3,000,000 originally calculated upon the full issue for one year. The sum of $25,000,000 for six months would draw interest to the amount of $375,000 and an additional amount of $25,000 for one year would draw $750,000, making a total of $1,125,000. This would be at the rates of less than one cent and a half per capita for the people of the country.

The Treasury will be justified in the opinion of the officials, in adding to its working balance as soon as money market conditions permit. About $17,000,000 will probably be added to this balance by the proportions retained from the sale of bonds and certificates next week, but the exact amount depends upon the amount and terms of the allotment of the one-year certificates.

The nominal cash balance of the Treasury today was $241,393,217, but this was subject to the deduction of $234,939,589 in banks and elsewhere, leaving only $6,463,628 as the apparent working balance.

The actual cash held in the Treasury stands at $119,438,011, but this is offset by outstanding checks and other demand liabilities amounting to $112,984,383. Receipts continue to fall below the average of a year ago, but were a little better today than for the corresponding day last year. The month of November thus far has shown a surplus of receipts of $2,931,645 as against a surplus in November 1906, of $4,799,147.

A letter has been received at the Treasury Department from one of the leading bankers in Chicago containing encouraging information about the efforts that are being made in the West for the resumption of currency payments.

Owing to the large amount of subscriptions received, the Secretary of the Treasury late today announced that the subscription to the 3 per cent certificates of indebtedness of the Act of June 13, 1898, invited by the circular of November 18, 1907, is closed, and that no subscription received after the close of business on November 27 will be considered. The several assistant treasurers of the United States have been instructed not to accept any further offers. The decided improvement in business conditions throughout the country makes it quite possible that the Secretary will not extend his allotments further than those already made.

Mr. S. D. Benson Dead.

Mr. S. D. Benson, a leading citizen of Grists, N. C., died Monday at his home after an illness of some time. The remains were brought through the city yesterday morning and taken to Councils, thence to Carver's Creek for interment. Mr. Benson was 47 years of age, and leaves a wife, a sister of Mrs. E. J. Grimsley, of this city, and two children, Earnest, a son, and an infant, six weeks old. He also leaves two brothers, M. C. Benson, of this city, and David Benson, of Evergreen, N. C., and two sisters.

Seaboard Trains Tied Up.

On account of the wreck of eight cars of a material train two miles this side of Clarkton early yesterday, all passenger trains on the Seaboard Air Line between here and Hamlet were tied up until a transfer could be made at the scene of the accident. The morning train which left here at 4 a. m. could not leave Council's until afternoon and the connection with the train due here in the early afternoon did not reach the city until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN.

Ithacans Win Ninth Annual Collegiate Event With Pennsylvania Second.

(By Wire to the Morn'ng Star.)

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 27.—Six Cornell men finished among the first thirteen out of a field of 68 contestants in the ninth annual collegiate cross country run here today and the Ithacans won the meet with ease, scoring 39 points.

Pennsylvania was second with 61 points and Yale third with 135 points. The others finished in the following order: Syracuse, Harvard, Columbia, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Princeton.

Guy Haskins, of Pennsylvania, was the individual star of the race.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE.

Frank Reed Pleaded Guilty to the Murdering of John Bellamy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Columbus, Ga., November 27.—In the Superior Court to-day Frank Reed, a young white man, pleaded guilty to murder, and was given a life sentence. Several months ago Reed shot and mortally wounded John Bellamy, who subsequently died.

Reed stationed himself at the second story of the Jordan City Hotel and shot Bellamy as he was walking along the street. Just before he fired he motioned to a man who was with Bellamy to get out of the way to avoid being shot.

INJUNCTION GRANTED.

Federal Judge Thomas Jones Gives Railroads Temporary Relief.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 27.—Judge Thomas G. Jones, of the United States district court, late today granted a restraining order which has the effect of temporarily suspending all of the railroad regulation legislation just passed by the legislature as they apply to the Louisville and Nashville, South and North Alabama, the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis and the Central of Georgia Railroads.

The Court suspends the laws temporarily for an investigation of the claims made in the bills that they are confiscatory and unconstitutional.

In the case of the Central of Georgia, the order is made returnable December 16.

The order in the case of the other railroads is made returnable December 2. These orders are directed to the sheriffs, solicitors, clerks of the counties through which the roads pass and to all citizens, restraining them from attempting to enforce the laws until the court disposes of the litigation. Scores of deputy marshals started out tonight to serve the processes throughout the state.

The Central Trust Company, of New York, owner of the second preferred bonds of the Central Railway of Georgia, is complainant in the bill against the Central Railway but the other bills are filed by the railroads against the state. All of the bills filed by the railroads attack the classification acts of the special session as being "manifestly unfair and unjust." Railroads which entered into an agreement with Governor Comer, it is alleged, were given "unjust and illegal preference over the railroads which failed or refused to enter into the agreement and are permitted to charge a much higher rate.

The Louisville and Nashville filed a supplemental bill tonight with the United States, praying that the litigation on the docket of the court in respect to the old laws shall not be dismissed. This indicates that the company will insist on fighting the former litigation through the United States Supreme Court.

Governor Comer is out of the city and no statement could be secured from him. Attorney General Garber said tonight that he would examine the bills tomorrow and would call a conference of the states lawyers before taking any action.

IS NOT PLEDGED.

But Tammany Hall Will Support the Nominee with Loyalty.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 27.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, declared today that James J. Hagan had no authority to pledge Tammany Hall's support to William Jennings Bryan for the Democratic nomination for President, as he did at the Bryan dinner in Washington last night.

When Mr. Murphy's attention was called to Mr. Hagan's action, he said: "Hagan spoke for Hagan, not for Tammany Hall. No one is authorized to pledge the Tammany delegation. If Mr. Bryan is the nominee of the Democratic party for President, Tammany will support him with loyalty; but we are not pledging ourselves to any candidate at this time." Mr. Murphy's attention was also called to the declaration of State Chairman W. F. Connors in favor of Lieutenant Governor Lewis S. Chanler for presidential nominee.

"Mr. Chanler is a strong and popular young man," said Mr. Murphy. He added that it was too early to decide whether the New York State delegation to the Democratic National Convention would be instructed or not.

STEAMER'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Caught in Storm Off Hatteras and Badly Damaged.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—During the storm which swept along the Atlantic coast last Saturday night and Sunday, the steamship Admiral Schley bound from Philadelphia for Port Antonio with ten passengers on board, five of whom were women, sustained damages to its machinery which caused the vessel to drift for about ten hours. The accident occurred off Cape Hatteras and after temporary repairs had been made Captain Jenson, of the steamship, decided to return to Philadelphia. The Admiral Schley reached port today. During the height of the storm the air pump of the ship's engine gave way and a few minutes later the eccentric rod, unable to withstand the pounding it was being subjected to also gave way. Outside the damage to the machinery, the vessel, beyond losing every awning and port lights, sustained no other injury. The return trip to this city was made at about five knots an hour.

MURDERER HAS CONFESSED

Charlotte Young Man Says He Aimed to Kill Mother.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 27.—Amzi Helms, the young man arrested last night and lodged in jail charged with the murder of Ella Pryor near here Sunday evening, confessed to-day to shooting the young lady, but declared it was through mistake. Helms says that upon reaching Miss Pryor's house and finding a gun he withdrew one shell and fired at a woman who appear, intended it as a joke, and thinking there was only one shell in thought he had killed Mrs. Pryor (the mother), and seeing his awful blunder, wandered all night in the woods.

President Roosevelt, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and Quentin will go by a special train this morning to Montpelier, Virginia, to visit the former home of President Madison, located near Montpelier and now occupied by William Dupont. The trip was arranged by the president to complete his visits to the homes of former Presidents who resided in the South.

Wee New Yorkers on Snowshoes.

Snoeshoeing as a sport for children is winning the serious attention of New York mothers. There are few better forms of exercise, for, properly done, it combines the virtues of walking and running. The snowshoe "walk" is peculiar to itself. It is a modified dog-trot, really neither walk nor run but a combination of the two Naturally it strengthens the feet and legs directly, and indirectly it benefits every other part of the body. The quantity of fresh air inhaled is larger than one gets from skating, as progress is not as swift as on the ice, and the breathing, therefore, is slower and more natural. Not on all winter days is there snow enough in the suburbs of the metropolis for snowshoeing, and not every kind of snow that falls in this region is the sort best adapted to the sport. But one can snowshoe over almost any kind of snow, in a fashion, and a child's weight calls for less thickness of support than an adult's. Sporting goods shops already carry children's sizes in snowshoes, and the toy shops and department stores doubtless soon will follow the example if they have not already done so. The cost is small and the resultant benefit large.

A "ten-penny" nail means that one thousand nails weigh 10 pounds. The word "penny" in this case is a corruption of pound.

GIVING OUT.

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Wilmington.

Around all day with an aching back;
Can't rest at night;
Enough to make any one "give out."
Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.
They will cure the backache;
Cure every kidney ill.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor of Eight South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism, and her ankles would be all pulled up every morning, so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankles and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

Belle of Virginia Rye deserves its name, and the name is certainly one of distinction and old-time aristocracy. It's a whiskey we are proud of on account of its purity and high quality and its hosts of admiring friends who will drink nothing else. Belle of Virginia is a blend—a scientific, uniform blend of pure, old goods. It's a whiskey with a flavor, and a fine, invigorating after-effect long to be remembered by those who drink it. Try it and you will make no mistake.

Sold at the places where gentlemen go to get a drink.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Salisbury, Nov. 26.—A meeting of the stockholders of the Yadkin Railroad, a branch of the Southern, from Salisbury to Norwood, was held here today. The affairs of the company were gone over by the officers and a board of directors elected. A. B. Andrews and Henry W. Miller, both of Raleigh, were elected president and secretary, respectively.

—Selma, Nov. 26.—Sunday morning about ten o'clock Mrs. Laura Cowthorne, who lives in the southern part of the city, lost her residence by fire. The origin of the fire is not known, but supposed to have caught from the chimney in some way. As her two sons and some of her boaders were present at the time, they succeeded in saving all the furniture. There was no insurance.

—Salisbury, Nov. 26.—About forty of the crack fighting cocks of North Carolina were shipped from Salisbury to Florence, S. C., last night, where they will this week be pitted against an aggregation of South Carolina fowls. A number of Salisburians also went to South Carolina to witness the mains which are held annually. The North Carolina birds have never yet failed to win big money for their owners who expect to return with first prizes this year.

—Plymouth Beacon: The directors of the R. R. R. & L. Co., who met here last Friday, as noted in these columns last week, to discuss the advisability of closing down their mills, decided, for the benefit of their employes, to continue work at a cut of 20 per cent. in wages. While this may not be very pleasant it is much better than a close down. We are also informed that the Plymouth Lumber Co., after being closed down for two weeks, will resume operations next week.

—Winston-Salem, Nov. 26.—George Sheets, wanted in Danville, Va., on the charge of defrauding the government in the operation of a whiskey distillery, was arrested today at the home of his father in Davie county. He was brought before a United States Commissioner here this afternoon and his bond was fixed at $5,000. At the suggestion of friends, Sheets left tonight, in charge of a deputy marshall, for Danville, to appear before the Judge holding federal court there with the hope of securing a reduction in his bail. Sheets is a native of Davie county.

Kinston Free Press: Mr. George Clark, chief of police of Greenville, shot a negro, Ed Smith, in the leg yesterday, to prevent him from escaping arrest. Smith had assaulted a negro woman on Saturday night, hitting her in the head with a bottle, wounding her seriously. A warrant was sworn out before Mayor Wooten and Mr. Clark served it on Smith yesterday, Smith got away and ran off. Mr. Clark followed and as the negro was getting away, drew his pistol and fired hitting the negro in the leg. The ball shattered the bone in the leg and amputation was necessary. It is doubtful that the negro will recover.

—Winston-Salem Sentinel: At a meeting of the various manufacturers of the city held at the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company Saturday night at half past seven o'clock, it was decided to pay off employes in certificates of deposit or individual checks of deposit. This action was taken on account of the stringency of the money market. A decision was reached among the local tobacco manufacturers, at a meeting held this morning, to pay off employes next Saturday one-half cash and the balance in certificates of deposit or individual checks of deposit. After the 28th of this month, all wages will be paid in certificates of deposit or individual checks of deposit until the present financial conditions improve.

—Winston-Salem, Nov. 26.—Miss Le Vora B. Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Pratt, of this city, gave her friends a great surprise Sunday when the announcement was made that at Greensboro during the Fair she was married to Mr. Henry W. Lee. The announcement was made at a dinner to which she had invited a few friends. After the guests were asembled Mr. Lee and, as the guests thought, "Miss Pratt" came in, the latter handsomely gowned in a pretty golden brown tailored suit, evidently dressed for traveling. Miss Snow then arose and made the surprising announcement that she would introduce to the company Mr. and Mrs. Lee, the couple having been quietly married on Oct. 17, while attending the Greensboro Fair. The Rev. A. G. Kirkman was the officiating minister.

—Statesville, Nov. 26.— Deputy Sheriff Ward returned yestaerday from Barber Junction, where he had been in search of a negro supposed to be the same man who shot and seriously injured Policeman Goforth, of Newton, Friday night. A negro who answered the description of the Newton burglar turned up at Barber's Junction Saturday and was chased by Deputy Sheriff Thompson and Mr. Ed Barber, and Mr. Barber shot at him. Messrs. Thompson and Barber did not know that the man had shot the Newton policeman but thought he was only wanted for housebreaking. Had they known the seriousness of the offence they would have shot the negro rather than let him get away. At last report Mr. Goforth was getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. H. F. Long, of Statesville, who is attending him, will go to Newton again today.

THE COTTON MARKET

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 27.—After an irregular early session the cotton market became firmer today and closed steady at a net advance of 5 to 11 points. Sales were estimated at 325,000 bales.

The opening was steady at a net advance of 2 to 8 points and during the first few minutes the active months showed a net gain of 7 to 9 points in response to higher cables, big English spot sales, bullish rumors regarding private crop estimates and covering by shorts. Offerings were heavy on advance, however, with brokers credited as operating for prominent Wall Street interests and for the original bull pool, active sellers of January and later months and during the middle session the market eased off to a net loss of 5 to 8 points. Later there was a sharp rally. The early liquidation has greatly reduced the scattering long interest and with offerings from this source lighter, a renewal of bull support caused an advance in prices. At one time in the late trading the market showed a net gain of 11 to 16 points, the close being a few points off from the best under realizing by early buyers. Local spot people reported a better demand from domestic spinners during the day, saying that inquiries were being received from almost all spinning centers, although for small lots at low prices. Interior holders were said to be very firm and southern spot markets officially reported were 1-16 to 1-8 cent higher.

Receipts at the ports today 46,263 bales against 60,626 last week and 61,943 last year. For the week 350,000 bales against 351,533 last week, and 402,138 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 14,444 bales against 13,112 last year and at Houston 2,510 against 17,860 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady, 5 points higher; middling uplands 11.45; middling gulf 11.70; sales 800 bales.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, November 27.—A feeling of greater confidence is growing in the dry goods trade consequent on easier financial conditions affecting the business. A slight increase in the inquiry for goods is noted. Cotton goods are easier on some lines, principally on goods for printers and converters.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 27.—The stock market displayed a spirit of caution in following up the advancing tendency which developed yesterday. The speculators showed a disposition to balk at some of the efforts at stimulation. These efforts centered largely around the Pacifics and Reading and had to do, in the one case, with rumors of an establishment of cordial relations between the Harriman and Hill interests, and in the other with a plan for divestment of ownership of coal properties, which would include a distribution of shares in a holding company to Reading stockholders.

Only small sums of currency were sold at a premium today and the premium rate showed a decidedly yielding tendency. There was a relaxation perceptible in some of the interior markets in the rates of exchange on New York. The tension in the foreign exchange also sensibly relaxed and the marked ease in the London discount market reflected the growth in confidence there in the passing of our financial crisis. The fall in the private discount rate in London was so distinct as to give rise to expectations of a reduction in the official rate of the Bank of England tomorrow. In the securities market the improvement in the department of rates was much more improved than in the stock department. The rise in bonds today was the first indistinct and comprehensive movement of the sort which has been seen since the late crisis developed. The stock market continued irregular throughout, renewed liquidation appearing in some stocks, notably Missouri Pacific, but the market turned strong before the close.

Bonds were notably strong, total sales par value $3,582,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today 434,900 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 27.—Money on call lower 3 to 6 per cent. ruling rate 6; closing bid 3; offered at 5. Time loans nominal, sixty days 15 per cent. and ninety days 12 per cent; six months 8 per cent.

Close: Prime mercantile paper 8 per cent. Sterling exchange weaker with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8640 to 4.8645 for demand and at 4.7950 to 4.7975 for sixty day bills. Commercial bills 4.7575 to 4.80. Bar silver 57 3-8. Mexican dollars 45.

MOST DAMAGING TO MRS. BRADLEY

Several Witnesses Testify to Unblushing Conduct of Murderess of Senator Brown.

WAS DESPERATE WOMAN

Senator's Wife Once Choked Her—Asked to Be Allowed to Kill Woman Who Robbed Her of Her Husband

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—Throughout today the testimony offered in the trial of Mrs. Anna M. Bradley, charged with having shot and killed former Senator Brown, of Utah, in this city last December, was most damaging to the defendant. There were many witnesses who had seen her shortly after the shooting and others who had attended her while she was in jail here, but none of them had at any time doubted her sanity. These witnesses had been called by the government in rebuttal. They included practically every one who had come in contact with Mrs. Bradley after the shooting of Senator Brown. Attendants at the hotel where the shooting occurred, officials at the police station and at the house of detention in which she was at first confined, newspaper men, doctors and attendants at the jail declared their belief that she was rational in manner and coherrent in language when they saw and talked to her. Several other witnesses who had talked with her in Salt Lake City and elsewhere prior to the shooting gave evidence to the same effect.

A dramatic feature of the day was the description by Soren S. Christenson, of Salt Lake, of an encounter between Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Brown, at a hotel in Potacello, Idaho, in the summer of 1906. On that occasion Mrs. Brown discovered Mrs. Bradley in the hotel with Senator Brown and attacking her, attempted to choke her, and asked to be allowed to kill her. The Senator came to her rescue and then the party, including the witness, had an all night discussion of the difficulty during which Brown, turning fiercely upon his wife, denied that he was the father of her son, Max Brown and at the same time admitted that he was the father of two of Mrs. Bradley's children. An outburst of denunciation by Mrs. Brown of her husband and Mrs. Bradley followed, after which the Senator and the defendant went to another hotel, where they called for drinks. The witness gave a graphic description of the meeting of Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Bradley at the hotel in Pocatello. He said Mrs. Brown told Mrs. Bradley she wanted to say something to her. Mrs. Brown advanced towards Mrs. Bradley and took her by the throat and she seemed as if she was going to do her violence. They separated a moment and then Mrs. Brown again took hold of Mrs. Bradley. Mrs. Brown said:

"Let me kill her."

Mr. Brown was in a room about six feet away and Mrs. Bradley called to him: "Come here, Mr. Brown. They are trying to kill your darling."

She rushed to Mr. Brown's door and asked to be let in. The door was opened and Mr. Brown came out. They all went in a small room and sat down and had a conversation lasting several hours.

"At the end of the conversation," said the witness, "Mr. Brown denied that he was the father of Max Brown and said he was the father of two of Mrs. Bradley's children. Mrs. Brown turned to Senator Brown and pointing to Mrs. Bradley said: "You low, vile degenerate. Think of a man who would deny his own son and admit he is the father of these bastard children."

There were suggestions about getting a divorce and Mrs. Brown said she would grant a divorce if the Senator would deed the farm in Idaho and the house on Brigham Street to Max Brown, keeping the rest of his property. The Senator said he would not do that as he would not have left enough money to pay his debts. She then said he could keep the farm and the house and deed the rest of his property to Max, but he refused to do that. During the conversation Mrs. Brown told the Senator he could go but that she never wanted to see him come back. After leaving the hotel at Pocatello, where this meeting took place, Brown, Mrs. Bradley and the witness went out and to another hotel where the Senator and Mrs. Bradley had a cocktail or two.

"What was Mrs. Bradley's demeanor on this occasion?" asked the assistant district attorney.

"Same as I have always seen her—calm."

The witness said that in all his acquaintance with Mrs. Bradley, she appeared to him perfectly sane.

A new phase of the testimony today was the admission of Archibald Livingston, the Senator's stenographer, that he had often told falsehoods to Mrs. Bradley in order to quiet her and to avoid trouble for either the Senator or himself.

Justice Stafford rebuked a couple of spectators, a man and a woman, in the court room, who brought with them a young girl of about 11 years of age. When the justice saw the child he stopped the proceedings and ordered an attendant to escort the couple and the child from the court room.

As the day wore on Mrs. Bradley appeared to feel the fatigue of her long trial. It was with more effort than usual that she gave attention to the statements of witnesses. She closed her eyes for several minutes, leaning her head on her right hand. It was expected that all the testimony in the case would be in today but at the last moment the district attorney subpoenaed additional witnesses in rebuttal. Another witness is now on his way here from Utah to testify for the government.

It is now at a place where the testimony will be concluded Friday to which day court adjaurned at the close of today's session.

CLOSE RELATIONS EXIST

American Tobacco Co and United Cigar Co. are Acknowledged to Have Business ..Relations. — Vice President Hill Examined

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 27.—The nature of the relations existing between the American Tobacco Company and the United Cigar Stores Company, which has a large number of retail stores throughout the country, was inquired into at today's session in the hearing in the case of the United States against the so-called Tobacco Trust.

The hearing is taking place before United States Commissioner Shields. While it was not absolutely established by direct admission that the relations were absolutely told by the American Tobacco Company, much of the testimony was to the effect that there are unusually close relations between the two companies.

P. O. Hill, vice president of the American Tobacco Company, was the only witnesse examined today. He said that while he never knew of a specific denial of the report that the United Cigar Stores Company was owned by the American Tobaco Company, he did not recall that such ownership had ever been admitted. He said he had very little knowledge of the management of the United Cigar Company, giving it the benefit of regular trade discounts given to jobbers who encouraged the use of the American Company's products. These discounts amount to from seven to ten per cent, besides the usual discount of two per cent. for cash. Mr. Hall said the American Company sells to no other retail tobacconists in New York. Asked who furnished the money to start the business of the United Cigar Stores Company, Mr. Hill said he did not know. Asked as to the ownership of the jobbing concerns by his corporation throughout the country, Mr. Hill said it had interest in only one and that was in New Orleans.

If the United Cigar Stores Company had an interest in a concern in Chicago, Mr. Hill said he did not know. A dozen concerns or more handled the company's product in New England and got the same allowance, he said. Concerns which handled the American Tobacco Company's products exclusively, however, got an additional allowance. Several letters from Mr. Hill's personal letter book relating to a plan to maintain prices of imported goods were made. It provided that i mporters, including Parker & Tilkford, and Acker, McCall & Condit, of New York, were to sell Havana cigars to retailers and jobbers at the same price. This might cause a demoralization of business for a time, the letter said, but in the end it would result in forcing the importers into an agreement to maintain prices. Mr. Hill said the American Tobacco Company owned a small amount of stock in the Acker, McCall & Condit Company, but none at all in the Par & Tilford concern.

Another letter written to the American Tobacco Company's confidential agent in California said a company was to be formed in California in conjunction with Blasskover, who already was doing a large business there, to push the American Company's goods in that market. The American Company's connection with the company was to be kept secret. Mr. Hill said today that that plan was carried out but that eventually Blasskover took ownership of the entire business.

That the American Tobacco Company in 1906 owned a large interest in a factory in New Orleans operated as Graft & Co., and kept the fact of its partial ownership secret, was disclosed by another letter. The hearing will be continued on Friday.

APPEAL IS FILED.

Licorice Manufacturers Have Replied to the Government's Charges.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—The appeal of the McAndrews and Forbes Company and the J. S. Young company, in the prosecution of these corporations by the government, on the charge of cornering the trade in licorice used in the manufacture of cigars and tobacco was filed today in the Supreme Court of the United States. These two firm manufacture about 85 per cent. of the licorice paste used by tobacco manufacturers and they were fined $18,000 by the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York on the charge of violating the Sherman anti-trust law in an effort to prevent competition in this industry.

MEAT PRICES TO BE LOWERED.

Consumers Will Get Advantage of Decline of Prices of Live Stock.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, Novvember 26.—Sweeping reductions in the prices of meat and provisions are promised Chicago consumers as a result of a similar decline in the prices of live stock that has been going on the last forty days. Reductions in the wholesale prices in these lines were made yesterday.

This reduction will reach the consumer by the end of the week, according to a statement made by a prominent retail merchants last night, and the new schedule of prices will undoubtedly be put into effect at that time.

MAY COMPROMISE WITH RAILROADS

Master's Hearing in Passenger Reduction Inquiry Resumed at Raleigh.

MAY CALL LEGISLATURE

Believed That State Authorities Favor Compromise with Railroads and Extra Session of General Assembly May Ratify.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 27.—The hearing before Standing Master Montgomery in the noted Southern Railway suit to test the constitutionality of the passenger rate act, was resumed for the State this morning and continued until 6 o'clock, when a recess was taken to 10:30 Friday morning. The whole day was devoted to the examination of Henry C. Brown, secretary of the North Carolina Corporation Commission. His examination will require at least another day and then cross examination by the Southern Railway counsel, will follow. It is a significant fact that Chairman C. C. McChord of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, who was here as an expert witness for the State, has returned to Kentucky without going on the stand.

Many watching closely the progress of the rate litigation are more than ever convinced that the State authorities are seriously considering the matter of accepting the proposition of the Southern for a compromise of the whole matter, the legislature to be called in extraordinary session to ratify the compromise. In fact, they take the position that further hearings in the case now under way are merely for the counsel of the State to get in as much as possible of the States evidence in rebuttal of the Southern's evidence given in Washington and New York, so the status of the State's case would show up as strongly as possible when the legislature is called to act on the proposed compromise which it is understood will evolve little, a higher rate and regulation as to mileage books, the ultimate purpose being to bring about very much the same passenger regulations in this and several other Southern States, including Georgia and Aalabama.

Before the introduction of witnesses today, Master Montgomery delivered himself of a sharp denunciation and criticism of the Raleigh morning paper, made on this morning, because he, as master, had declared that had he known the continuance procured from yesterday was because one of the counsel for State, E. J. Justice, could not be present that day, he would have refused to grant the continuance. Said criticism is entirely unwarranted, as in refusing continuance for such reason he could have been following the regular practice of the Supreme Court that no case be continued on account of a member of counsel, when several others of counsel who can direct the case. Former continuance for general counsel Thom was because Thom conducted the case for the Southern alone. The State had a number of well equipped attorneys, amply familiar with the case to proceed in the absence of Mr. Justice. He said he had really though there would be no further hearing by him as master in view of propositions known by hundreds of citizens to be pending for a settlement of case out of the Courts. He really had not expected to be called on to preside over another sitting of the Master's Court before the whole case would be settled under the proposed compromise known to be pending.

Secretary Brown was examined today at great length, the examination being long and complicated, involving receipts, gross and net earnings and other figures from the annual reports of the Southern Railway to the Corporation Commission from 1901 to 1907. Evidence of the Southern in Washington had been that intra state business was conducted at a loss owing to the excessive cost of this class of busines over inter-state business.

The examination of Brown was to contradict this. The figures he gave in answer to the long drawn out questions were voluminous and technical to a degree. The general trend was with a view to proving that for 1907 to 1907, according to the railroad commission, was a steady increase in the earnings each year until 1907, when the report shows such a marked difference in the decrease of net earnings. Secretary Brown testified that the increase in the coal account for the year ending June 30, 1907, was about $1,000,000 more than it should have been, allowing a reasonable increase for aditional business for the year, as compared with previous years. He also recited figures which the State contends shows that the Southern charged to operating expenses in 1907 about $2,000,000 for equipment, the life of which is about 20 years, so that this lump sum should by no means have been all dumped into the 1907 expense account.

Twenty-three opinions were delivered this evening by the Supreme Court. In one capital case the State vs. Major Guthrie, colored, Durham, for wife murder, the findings of the lower court were affirmed, so the prisoner must hang as soon as Governor Glenn fixes the date for his execution. The list of opinions follows:

Jenkins vs. Railway, Cleveland, new trial; Hamerick vs. Railway, Cleveland, new trial; Guano Co vs. Bowers, Halifax, reversed; State vs. Carmon, Rowen, no error; Lumber Co. vs. Smith, Harnett, no error; Rollins vs. Railway, Chatham, no error; State vs. Guthrie, Durham, no error; Critcher vs. Watson, Granville, no error; Cardwell vs. Railway, Alamance, no error; Morris vs. Express Co., Randolph, no error; Dobler & Mudge vs. Varner, Rowan, no error; State vs. Tuttle, Forsyth, no error; Phillips vs. Iron Works, Forsyth, new trial; State vs. Lord, Mecklenburg, error; Cashmer vs. Dowd, Mecklenburg, new trial Wooten vs. Smith, Mecklenburg, no error; State vs. Wright, Catawba, no error; Davis vs. Davis, Watauga, no error; Lumber Co. vs. Smith, Caldwell, no error; Bernhardt vs. Dutton, Wilkes, modified and affirmed; Miller vs. Ralway, Mecklenburg, Percuriam, affirmed; Dillinger vs Troutman, Lincoln, Percariam, affirmed; Jones vs. Smathers, Buncombe, dismissed under rule 17.

By Associated Press.

Raleigh, N. C., November 27.—The hearing before Master Montgomery in the case of the Southern Railway against the State in the passenger rate litigation was resumed to-day.

The only witness examined was H. C. Brown, chief clerk to the North Carolina Corporation Commission, who appeared for the State. His evidence went to how that the Southern Railway has been making money for the past eight years and that the 2 1-4 cent rate is not confiscatory; that this can be shown from the books. His direct examination will go on tomorrow and his answers are largely in figures from the records.

WILL SAIL ON TIME.

So Says Admiral Bob Evans of His Battleship Fleet.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—"You can bet your North American life that the battleship fleet will sail from Hampton Roads on its cruise to the Pacific on the morning of December 16th. The vessels will get under way just as soon as I receive the President's orders to set sail."

In this characteristic manner Admiral Robley D. Evans answered reports recently circulated that there would be a delay in the assembling and consequent departure of the fleet from the date originally set. The Admiral's orders contemplated the assembling of the fleet in Hampton Roads on December 9th. It is possible that all the ships may not be there on that date.

At the Bureau of Navigation it is said there may possibly be a trifling delay in the arival at Hampton Roads of the Battleships Minnesota, Kentucky and Virginia, which yet have to be docked and their sea valves overhauled before they are ready for a long trip. Admiral Evans will be the guest of President Roosevelt at dinner at the White House tomorrow night.

CUT GIRL'S THROAT.

Sanders Then Turned Razor on Her Mother and Himself.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lithonia, Ga., Nov. 27.—Enoch Sanders, a bachelor, 38 years old, who lived at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Sanders near here early today, seized his niece Bertha and before her mother could interfere, cut the girl's throat with a razor. He then turned on Mrs. Sanders and in the struggle which followed she was also seriously cut. Sanders finally turned the razor on himself, inflicting wounds which the doctors say will prove fatal.

Mrs. Sanders and her daughter will recover. Sanders denies that he is responsible for the cutting.

According to the official count completed by the Rhode Island returning board yesterday at Providence, Ralph C. Walrons, of Warwick, was elected lieutenant governor by a plurality of nine votes, over Charles H. Sisson, Democrat.

A Gift Worth While

The money spent for trinkets by the average family at Christmas time would buy an Edison Phonograph. The trinkets last about as long as Christmas does. The Edison Phonograph affords enjoyment day after day and year after year. The trinkets please only the individual recipients. The Edison Phonograph offers a continuous round of pleasure for the whole family.

It is the greatest music-maker of the age. It brings into the home circle all of the world's music, rendering with wonderful faithfulness whatever song, instrumental piece, or orchestral selection is desired.

Make this Christmas the merriest of all by having for its chief feature an.
